

Kellogg Company Corporate Political Expenditures for 2013

Kellogg did not contribute to any candidates, political parties or political committees in 2013.

Through the Grocery Manufacturers Association, Kellogg contributed to “No on I-522,” a ballot initiative committee in Washington State relating to food-labeling requirements.

Kellogg did not make independent expenditure contributions to super PACs, 527 organizations or 501(c)(4) organizations and has no plans to do so.

Trade Associations and 501(c)(4) Organizations: below is a list of groups to which a portion of our payments for the previous calendar year allocated for nondeductible lobbying expenses was at least $20,000:

- Grocery Manufacturers Association

Kellogg Company’s political contributions during the reporting period were all made in accordance with its Political Contributions Policy.